For the 20th year in a row, the World Coalition Against the Death Penalty is calling for local initiatives and world-wide actions that shine a spotlight on the abolition of the death penalty. The goal of this Mobilization Kit is to inform of this year’s objectives as well provide ideas of activities that boost the global abolitionist goal.

The World Day Against the Death Penalty (10 October) is aimed at political leaders and public opinion in both retentionist and abolitionist countries. The meaning of abolition and of justice without capital punishment needs to be maintained and shared, particularly for future generations. This day also unifies the abolitionist movement and gives global support to the sometimes-isolated action taken by its abolitionists on the ground. It encourages and consolidates the political and general awareness of the movement against the death penalty.

This year’s World Day is dedicated to people who, during the process of being sentenced to death, or following the sentence of their death, have been victims of torture.

The World Coalition Against the Death Penalty

Join the movement for the universal of the abolition of the death penalty!

Secretariat of the World Coalition:

[1] PRESENTATION
The main objectives of the World Day 2022

While several methods of execution have been qualified by their nature as torture or cruel, inhuman, or degrading punishment by the Human Rights Council in its General Comment No. 36, the link between torture and the death penalty is not limited to the execution itself. There are other aspects of the death penalty that may amount to torture, and they occur at any time in the proceedings: before, during and after the sentence. These types of tortures are various, and they are not always limited to the condemned persons themselves:

- Whether physical, sexual, or psychological, torture can be used to obtain confessions that are then used to charge individuals and sentence them to death.
- Death row syndrome regularly includes physical and/or psychological torture, in addition to the often precarious conditions of detention of death row inmates. Isolation, overcrowding, and risk of suicide are common on death row. The anticipation of execution and death is also a form of psychological torture.
- Family members of victims, family members of those sentenced to death, and other persons who have relationships with those who are sentenced to death are also subjected to a form of psychological torture.

The main objective of the 2022 World Day is to raise public awareness around how the death penalty can amount to torture and build consensus that the definition of torture should be understood to include practices in connection with the death penalty. From a broader perspective, it aims to convince that the death penalty should be abolished as an unjust and arbitrary response to crime.

To do so, the World Coalition and its member organizations have identified specific objectives. This World Day is about supporting abolitionist activities by sharing arguments, figures, and information, sharing testimonies of survivors, executed persons and witnesses of inhuman, cruel and degrading experiences amounting to torture in the context of capital punishment. It also wants to support working with human rights organizations fighting for the abolition of torture to develop the abolitionist community.

[2] ARGUMENTS AGAINST THE DEATH PENALTY

(1) No State should have the power to take a person’s life

It is irrevocable. No justice system is safe from judicial error and innocent people are likely to be sentenced to death or executed.

(2) It is unfair. The death penalty is applied discriminatorily and is often used disproportionately against people who are poor, people with intellectual or psychosocial disabilities, and members of racial and ethnic minority groups. In some places, the imposition of the death penalty is used to target groups based on sexual orientation, gender identity, political opinion, or religion.

(3) It is inhuman, cruel, and degrading. Conditions on death row and the anguish of facing execution inflict extreme psychological and physical suffering, and execution is a physical and mental assault.

(4) It denies any possibility of rehabilitation.
It is applied overwhelmingly in violation of international standards. It breaches the principles of the 1948 Universal Declaration of Human Rights, which states that everyone has the right to life and that no one shall be subjected to torture or to cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment. On seven occasions, the United Nations General Assembly has called for the establishment of a moratorium on the use of the death penalty (resolutions No. 62/149 in 2007, No. 63/168 in 2008, No. 65/206 in 2010, 67/176 in 2012, No. 69/186 in 2014, No. 71/187 in 2016 and No. 73/175 in 2018 and No. 75/183 in 2020).

It creates unjustifiable pain for everyone in contact with it: particularly the relatives of the person sentenced to death, including children, with harsh transgenerational consequences.

It is counterproductive, because by instituting the killing of a human being as a criminal solution, the death penalty endorses the idea of murder more than it fights it.

It is inefficient and does not keep society safer. It has never been conclusively shown that the death penalty deters crime more effectively than life imprisonment.

Not all murder victims’ families want the death penalty. A large and growing number of crime victims’ families worldwide reject the death penalty and are speaking out against it, saying it does not bring back or honor their murdered family member, does not heal the pain of the murder, and violates their ethical and religious beliefs.
[3] ORGANIZE EVENTS!

Below are suggestions to spark ideas for taking action during this World Day!

Wherever you are – in Africa, in the Americas, in Asia, in Oceania or in Europe –

Whoever you are – artists, citizens, elected representatives, journalists, lawyers, members of Parliament, NGOs, teachers, religious leaders-

Whatever your project is – concerts, cultural and educational activities, debates, demonstrations, press conferences!

10 things you can do to end the death penalty

Any public event should be approached with caution considering the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic - please respect public policy and use common sense if you decide to hold such an event. When organizing, keep in mind that the sanitary situation can change quickly.

- Organize a gathering online or in person. It can take the shape of a demonstration, a webinar, remote workshop, or a conversation to create awareness (invite a speaker or read testimonies to provoke discussion), a debate or a movie screening with families of people sentenced to death, exonerees, their lawyers and experts, an art exhibition (of artwork made by people sentenced to death, of photographs of death row, of drawings or posters) or theater performance.

  See practical worksheet No. 1, practical worksheet No. 2 and practical worksheet No. 4 and practical worksheet No. 6

- Organize a visit in prison to raise awareness on the conditions of detentions of prisoners.

  See practical worksheet No. 10

- Build partnerships with minority group’s rights organizations (women, LGBTQIA+, religious minorities, ethnic minorities...) to raise awareness on how discriminations are an aggravating factor of the psychological and physical tortures experienced by persons sentenced to death belonging to a minority group. Ask for a meeting, collaborate together for a World Day activity, radio broadcast, event, or joint declaration.

  See practical worksheet No. 3

- Participate in a TV show or within a radio to raise awareness of the need to abolish the death penalty and the realities of torture on death row.

  See practical worksheet No. 10

- Write a letter to death row inmates or to their families to show support and fight isolation.

  See practical worksheet No. 6

- Join the events prepared for the abolition of the death penalty worldwide. Visit the World Coalition page for events near you!

- Donate to a group working to end the death penalty.

- Follow the social media campaign on Facebook, Instagram and Twitter and launch your own using: #nodeathpenalty
See practical worksheet No. 7

✳ Mobilize the media to raise awareness on torture experienced by those who are sentenced to death both locally and worldwide. Call for interviews, testimonies from death row detainees, investigations on local cases and raising awareness campaigns.

See practical worksheet No. 8 and practical worksheet No. 9 and practical worksheet No. 11.

✳ Participate in Cities Against the Death Penalty/Cities for Life on 30 November 2022.

10 practical worksheets to help you!

(1) HOW TO ORGANIZE A DEMONSTRATION?

✳ First, find out information on the legal conditions, the required authorizations for a demonstration, on the prerequisite declarations or the delay, and on the sanitary requirements.

✳ Define the message you would like to spread: do you want to point a specific case out or to call on political leaders or the public opinion?

✳ Put an “organizing group” in place to welcome people and answer their questions, share materials, explain the rules.

✳ No matter what event you choose to plan, the most important is to communicate! Before the event, contact and invite local medias (see worksheet No. 10) and/or create an event on social medias to spot as many people as possible, send an email with all the information (time, date, site, objectives). During and after the event, regularly share the information, photos, or short videos on Twitter by using #Nodeath penalty or share live videos on social medias (see worksheet No. 9).

(2) ORGANIZE A GATHERING ON A VIDEOCONFERENCE PLATFORM

✳ Select what type of event you would like to hold over videoconference and identify who you want to invite to participate.

✳ Select which videoconferencing platform you would like to use and learn how to use it prior to the event. Be aware that some platforms are not free, some limit the number of participants, and be very careful regarding the data security. A few examples of secure, free to use platforms include Jitsi and Talky.

✳ Draft your event’s agenda for the day. If you are hosting a remote workshop, perhaps you need to draft the workshop’s modules and assign a teacher(s) to the workshop. If you are hosting a discussion prepare a few conversation starters so that the event can be as smooth as possible.

✳ Make sure your speakers and/or teachers know which order they will be speaking in, on what subject, and how much time they have to do so. Online platforms do not offer the same ease of body language that in-person events do.

✳ Make sure you have digital materials to distribute to participants! All tools are downloadable from the World Coalition’s website.
Email, call or otherwise invite participants well in advance so that they might reserve the time in their calendars. In the hours leading up to the event, don’t forget to send a link to your event’s platform to the participants!

If your event is open to the public, advertise your event.

(3) COLLABORATE WITH MINORITY GROUP’S RIGHTS ORGANIZATIONS

Identify the organization in your region you want to collaborate with.

Request a short meeting. Reach out to the organization, include information about the theme of World Day 2022 and its relevance to their work as a minority group’s rights organization.

Invite them to your activity. Invite a representative from that organization to attend the World Day event you are organizing, share the livestream link, the press release, demonstration information, radio show information, or any other relevant materials.

Invite them to collaborate with your activity. Ask if they would like to collaborate with your event, by participating in hosting your event be it online, on the radio or an in-person seminar or demonstration. Alternatively, a collaboration could take place by releasing a joint declaration, press release or social media campaign. Encourage communication with their networks about the topic to spread the word, perhaps develop their own working group on the topic and to get them to attend your event.

Nurture your good ties with them and be willing to participate in their events if you are invited!

(4) HOW TO ORGANIZE A FILM FESTIVAL ON THE DEATH PENALTY?

Plan your event in advance at least two months before if it will be held in person. Holding a film festival in person requires 2 months of preparation.

Contact cinemas and other organizations in your country. In a virtual screening, instead research a videoconference platform that you can use to project a film onto a shared screen.

Choose a theme for the festival with a catchy title and choose up to dozen films. Make sure you have the right to screen them.

Make sure to have a variety of countries and cultures (European, American, Asian movies), content and subject matter (cases of innocence, of forced confessions, the world of prisoners sentenced to death, social pressure faced by victims’ families, etc.) and genre (blockbusters, art house films, documentaries…). You may find a list of films on the death penalty in this mobilization kit.

Arrange subtitles if the films do not already exist in your language, if possible. You can find some on the following website: https://www.opensubtitles.org/fr.

Organize debates after the films to encourage discussion with audience. Invite experts, scholars and directors to interact with the audience and explore their impressions of the film and their opinion on the death penalty.

Since 2004 Taiwan Alliance to End the Death Penalty has organized a film festival on the death penalty every three years.
HOW TO ORGANIZE A [VIRTUAL] ART EXHIBITION?

✩ Find a place for the exhibition, for example a well-known art gallery, museum, garden or square, a public place, a university, a library, an underground station, a shop window, etc. Please note that often these types of places are rarely free to use.

✩ More than six months are often required to reserve prestigious places such as temporary exhibition spaces in museums, but two or three months should suffice for a public place. Unusual places are often very interesting, but the procedure can be more complicated. To guarantee your chances of success, be organized in advance and get to know the managers of the exhibition area, suggesting they sponsor the project.

✩ Contact the artists for high-definition electronic copies of the posters (see section 7, for existing exhibitions).

✩ Print the drawings or the paintings depending on where they will be exhibited - if outside cover them in protective plastic, if in a museum think about hanging, etc.

✩ For a virtual exhibition, you need to obtain the digital versions of the art you are willing to depict in a definition as good as possible and collect the artists identifiers for their different social medias to be able to credit them and respect copyrights.

✩ Prepare the official opening of the exhibition, with the artist or a distinguished speaker who can talk about the death penalty (contact the World coalition if needed).

✩ Invite the media, your network of activists, engaged artists, academics, students, and those in the artistic scene, etc.

✩ Prepare the exhibition and do not forget to prepare drinks and a buffet if your budget permits.

✩ If you have informed the press, prepare a press kit with information about the exhibition, the artist and the World Day Against the Death Penalty.

Art exhibits are an out-of-the-norm way to generate public debate about the death penalty, which is why they can be so effective!

To select the artwork, you would like to display, you may ask yourself:

- How does this piece of artwork make me feel?
- How does this work depict the death penalty? In what way is it framing the death penalty debate?
- What human aspect does this artwork reveal in relation to the death penalty?

HOW TO PROMOTE THE WORLD DAY ON SOCIAL MEDIA?

✩ Starting from 1 October, post loads of messages!

Use Facebook to share the information with your friends and know more on the event around you. Here are a few examples of messages you can write to promote the online campaign.

- “What does the death penalty mean to you? Learn from a new perspective and share your story! [Facebook link]”
- “Check out the World Day against the Death Penalty. Download posters and tools, share with friends, have your say and more. [Website link]”

Our Ugly World, Arthur Angel
“Let’s end the death penalty! What are you doing to combat this inhumane treatment?
Join the discussion and the event on Facebook page” and also use Twitter with #nodeathpenalty. Here are a few examples of tweets you can post to promote the online campaign.

- “Spread the word! The World Day Against the Death Penalty is on 10 October 2022 www.worldcoalition.org/campagne/20th-world-day-against-the-death-penalty #nodeathpenalty”
- “Let’s end the death penalty! Visit www.worldcoalition.org/campagne/20th-world-day-against-the-death-penalty to say #nodeathpenalty”
- “What does the #deathpenalty mean to you? Learn from a new perspective, share with friends, have your say and more www.worldcoalition.org/campagne/20th-world-day-against-the-death-penalty”

Publish images on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram by taking photographs and making videos!
- Add a small description: a short text, a quote, a figure.
- Use #nodeathpenalty and other hashtags linked to the theme of World Day 2022.
- Be aware of the quality of the photograph and of the length of the video. A 2-minute-long video has more chances to be watched and shared.

Always respect the right to the image relative to the legislation of the country where you took the photo or filmed to the video.

Call out political leaders by mentioning them with the @ to their official account. Always show respect in your message, without insult or violence.

(7) HOW TO WRITE A PRESS RELEASE?

Use letterhead paper if you have it and include the name of your organization.

Put the notice “For immediate release” with the date of the public release.

Start with a short but explicit title.

The 1st paragraph is the introduction. It is the most important paragraph as journalists may not read beyond it. It answers the following questions: Who, What, Where, When and should attract the attention of journalists.

The following paragraphs are an explanation of this 1st paragraph. They answer the questions why and how and provide the context, stakes, and a brief historical background. Where necessary gives quote, facts and figures. It is important to give some materials, like the World Day brochure, to the journalists. They will need a quote for their article, so if you give it to them, they are more likely to use your press release. It is also important to give them accurate figures and reliable sources. By doing so, you make their work easier and increase your chances of receiving coverage.

- Put your contact information at the end of the press release with your first and last name, title, email and phone number.
- Include a link in the press release to your organization.
- The statement should not exceed one page. A long press release could discourage journalists and not be read at all.
- For more information consult the following guide: https://www.wikihow.com/Write-a-Press-Release

(8) HOW TO GUARANTEE GOOD MEDIA COVERAGE FOR YOUR EVENTS?

- Forge links with local journalists interested in the subject: throughout the year follow local media coverage and find the media outlets and journalists who often raise the theme of the death penalty. Also, find out how they discuss it: what news section, what angle, etc.
- Contact them in the summer or September to tell them about the World Day Against the Death Penalty (so that they put it in their schedules) and your event as a way of making yourself known.
- Try to become their yardstick for the subject by always responding quickly to journalists and providing them with reliable information.
- To maximize your chances of success, organize an event with one or two witness accounts. Journalists like to use personal stories and, if you provide them with the opportunity, they will talk about your event.
- Send out a press release a week before your event with the exact place, date and time, the title of the event, the names of the participants, a brief description of your event and a paragraph on the World Day.
- Send it again the day before the event if you have not had confirmation from journalists who might be interested.
- Specify that participants will be available for interview at the event.

(9) HOW TO LEAD AN AWARENESS CAMPAIGN VIA TV/RADIO SHOW

- Contact television or radio programs to introduce your organization and to offer an opportunity to talk about the World Day against the Death Penalty. You can call them for the first contact, but it is advisable to also send an email with information about the theme of the World Day, your organization, the purpose of such a program, etc. Local radio stations may be particularly interested. Plan this step at least 4 weeks in advance of your intended event.
- Prepare what you will say in your segment in relation to the abolition of the death penalty. You can adapt it to your national context to make it more relevant as the more accessible your segment is, the more awareness it will create amongst people listening or watching.
- After participating in the television or radio program, ask the organizers to give you the program’s recorded file. Share the program on your social networks.
(10) HOW TO GET IN CONTACT WITH OR VISIT AN INMATE ON DEATH ROW

_contact the World Coalition Against the Death Penalty_ and be connected with organizations who work directly with people who are sentenced to death and who can guide advocates through the process of sending messages of support to people, especially minority groups on death row.

Contact member organizations, bar associations and legal aid associations with access to the prison administration in their countries and ask if they have any data or helpful information in this area.

_identify the prison_ you would like to visit, considering the restrictions in some countries, it is not always possible to talk to the prisoners directly unless you are their lawyer or family member.

Visit the prisons and if possible, death row detainees to conduct interviews on their living conditions on death row and experiences.

Analyze the data and write a report: this will be useful to make recommendations and call on government representatives on the conditions of the detention for the people on death row in their countries.

10 Tips for a successful event!

1) Plan your action at least a month before the event, more if you need to rent a place, invite speakers, or contact us for an art exhibition.

2) Try to include several local NGOs or well-known people to make it a bigger event with no additional costs or efforts (including bar associations, parliamentarians, opinion makers)

   To know what is organized in your city www.worldcoalition.org/campagne/20th-world-day-against-the-death-penalty

   To contact members of the World Coalition in your country: https://worldcoalition.org/who-we-are/member-organizations/

3) Contact local media a week in advance and again two days before the event. See Worksheet number 9.

4) Use the Internet and social networking tools to spread the word.

5) Contact us to promote your event on our website and on Facebook page.

6) A few days before, advertise it in the streets (posters, leaflets with title, time and place of your event).

7) Tell everybody, your friends, your family, even your grandma!

8) Be ready to counter pro death penalty arguments (use our “10 reasons to end the death penalty” in the first part of this kit).

9) Be nice to people, even if they disagree!

10) Take pictures and write a short report (and send it to us).
[4] WORLD DAY TOOLS YOU CAN USE

For World Day, the World Coalition has produced some materials. They are all available on its website: www.worldcoalition.org/campagne/20th-world-day-against-the-death-penalty

The World Day's poster

For organizers of events, copies of the poster are available at no cost from the World Coalition Secretariat: contactus@worldcoalition.org

Information Leaflet

The 2022 World Day leaflet provides information on the pervasiveness of torture in the context of the death penalty. It provides arguments against the death penalty and testimonies from detainees on death row.

For organizers of events, copies of the poster are available at no cost from the World Coalition Secretariat: contactus@worldcoalition.org

Facts and figures on the death penalty

Up-to-date information on the application of the death penalty around the world in 2021 and 2022.

† Songzhuang art exhibition // The judges judgment (China)

The artist wants to express the opinion that the death penalty is the result of a mahjong game, and is not as fair, just and shocking as people think.
The World Coalition Against the Death Penalty

The World Coalition Against the Death Penalty, an alliance of more than 160 NGOs, bar associations, local bodies and unions, was created in Rome on 13 May 2002. It was founded as a result of the commitment made by the signatories of the Final Declaration of the 1st World Congress against the Death Penalty, which was organized by the French NGO Together Against the Death Penalty (ECPM) in Strasbourg in June 2001. The aim of the WCADP is to strengthen the international dimension of the fight against the death penalty. Its ultimate objective is to obtain the end of death sentences and executions in those countries where the death penalty is in force.

The WCADP is striving to achieve these by lobbying international organizations and States, organizing international events, and facilitating the creation and development of national and regional coalitions against the death penalty. Since 2003, the WCADP has made 10 October the World Day against the Death Penalty.

Join the movement for the universal of the abolition of the death penalty!

In accordance with article 5 of the World Coalition’s bylaws, the Coalition welcomes organizations who are sharing the aim of the universal abolition of the death penalty.
